M. FIRON & CO. ADVOCATES

IMMIGRATION LAW

M. Firon & Co. has a highly experienced immigration law practice. The firm represents wealthy businesspeople seeking to immigrate to Israel, advising them on a broad range of legal issues. The firm's clients include high-net-worth individuals who receive advice on immigrating to Israel, returning residents' issues, Israeli and foreign taxation, citizenship, and questions regarding their marital and family status, including common-law spouses, marriage and divorce, inheritance law, as well as comprehensive consultancy about their assets in Israel and around the world.

The firm's attorneys specialize in personal wealth management during the immigration process by using creative tools and planning an efficient legal and taxation structure for each asset that considers current and future needs. The firm has extensive experience in discussions and negotiations with the authorities and institutions responsible for handling "olim" and other immigrants, including embassies, Ministry of the Interior, Ministry of Immigrant Absorption, National Insurance Institute, Israel Tax Authority, etc.

The firm's practice is not limited solely to Israel. M. Firon & Co.'s lawyers have close working relationships with accountants, lawyers, financial institutions, and the various authorities in many countries around the world. This extensive network of contacts in Israel and overseas, together with thorough knowledge of immigration laws, enables the firm's attorneys to support clients throughout the immigration process, from beginning the process overseas, through handling the issues that arise over the move, and on to arrangements for permanent residency in Israel.

Our firm has unique expertise in providing legal support and assistance to Israeli and international companies in issuing working permits and visas to foreign experts, enabling them to work in Israel. This encompasses handling the employee's entire process from start to finish.

In recent years, we have seen a significant increase in the employment of foreign experts in Israel, resulting from growing globalization and the transfer of skilled employees between countries. There has also been a substantial rise in both national and private projects and mega-projects, which are often carried out by overseas companies and foreign experts who possess unique know-how for implementing these projects.
