M. FIRON & CO. ADVOCATES

INSURANCE

M. Firon & Co. is one of Israel's leading law firms in insurance. For decades, the firm has reliably represented almost all the largest insurance companies in Israel. Over the years, the firm has handled major insurance cases and contributed to the formulation of significant legal precedents that have shaped the entire insurance market. The firm's insurance practice earns high praise by the various rating guides, as viewed by its constant appearance in the top ranks in this sector.

M. Firon & Co. provides all the country's top insurance companies with comprehensive legal services, including representation before the Supervisor of Insurance, government committees, and even the Israeli Parliament in regulatory proceedings that affect millions of insurance policies. The firm also specializes in litigation in this field, representing its clients before the various courts and committees in Israel and overseas. In addition, the firm has unique expertise in class action suits filed against insurance companies and has been the leading firm in handling most of these proceedings in Israel in recent years.

The firm is also an expert in other insurance-related legal fields, including contract law, torts law, property law, corporate governance (including specializing in its special implementation in insurance companies), antitrust law regarding insurance, constitutional law, and administrative law.

Having worked in the insurance field for many years, M. Firon & Co.'s attorneys are among the most experienced in this area in Israel. They offer the firm's clients their significant domestic and international know-how, which spans the entire insurance sector. In addition to their wealth of experience in the practical world, the firm's lawyers have a rich academic background in this field. Some of the firm's attorneys have served as lecturers at various academic institutions and have highly praised and quoted books on insurance issues.
